

Multicultural coexistence – we live in harmony, not in proximity.

DIVERSE CULTURES. A SHARED SPACE.

Diversity is a daily reality.

languages, customs, ways of life

Respect devoid of hierarchy

no culture is "superior"

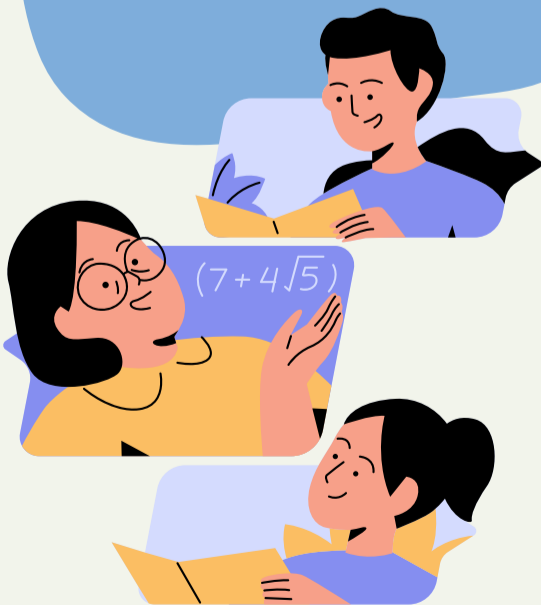

Dialogue over prejudice

we inquire, we do not condemn

We gain knowledge from one another.

Each individual contributes a unique perspective.

Collective accountability

identical city, institution, employment

MULTICULTURALISM REPRESENTS A RELATIONSHIP RATHER THAN MERE COEXISTENCE.
