

WORK CARD 3

The role of the group leader in building participants' commitment and motivation

Inside the person outline, write down in one colour leadership characteristics you already possess, and in another colour leadership characteristics which you need to develop or acquire. Outside the person outline, write down in one colour ways a leader can build commitment of participants, and in another colour how they can build their motivation.

