

QUIZ 2 - CRITICAL THINKING IN DECISION -MAKING AND COMMUNICATION PROCESSES

Co-funded by the European Union

GREEN
INDUSTRY
FOUNDATION

Quiz - Critical thinking in decision - making and communication processes

Instructions:

Below you will find 7 single-choice questions related to the application of critical thinking in decision-making and communication in green jobs. Choose one correct answer for each question.

1. What is the role of critical thinking in decision-making?

- A) It helps to ignore the risks and focus on the benefits.
- B) It facilitates rapid decision-making without unnecessary analysis.
- C) It allows all options, risks and benefits to be assessed before a decision is taken.
- D) It forces decisions to be made solely on the basis of emotions.

2. Which of the following tools supports critical thinking in green jobs?

- A) Cause-and-effect diagrams
- B) Random selection method
- C) Ignoring minor problems
- D) Automatic generation of decisions

3. Which of the following scenarios best illustrates the application of critical thinking in green jobs?

- A) Implementing new technologies without assessing their environmental impact.
- B) Analysis of energy consumption data and selection of the most sustainable solution.
- C) Decision-making based on majority opinion without data analysis.
- D) Making assumptions without verifying them.

4. What does the term “sustainable decision” mean in the context of green jobs?

- A) A decision that only benefits the economy, ignoring other aspects.
- B) A decision based solely on ecological convictions.
- C) A decision that takes into account economic, social and environmental benefits.
- D) A decision that is taken most quickly, without analysing the data.

5. The importance of argumentation in critical thinking?

- A) It allows you to defend your own views without having to justify them.
- B) It helps to convince others, even if the arguments are wrong.
- C) It allows for constructive discussion and defence of legitimate points of view.
- D) It replaces the need for critical data analysis.

6. How does critical thinking influence innovation in green jobs?

- A) It makes it difficult to introduce new solutions by focusing solely on risk.
- B) It supports the development of new, efficient and sustainable solutions.
- C) It limits opportunities to traditional working methods.
- D) It replaces creativity with rigid analysis.

7. Which of the following skills are key to having reasoned discussions in the context of critical thinking?

- A) Ability to challenge the opinions of others without evidence.
- B) Ability to give constructive criticism and present sound arguments.
- C) Ability to ignore arguments that do not match one's own beliefs.
- D) The ability to accept all points of view as equivalent, without analysing their value.