

QUIZ 2

CREATIVITY IN THE GREEN SECTOR - SUSTAINABLE CONSTRUCTION

Co-funded by the European Union

GREEN
INDUSTRY
FOUNDATION

Question 1

Which materials are most commonly used in sustainable construction?

- a) Steel and concrete
- b) Wood and clay
- c) Plastic and rubber
- d) Aluminum and glass

Question 2

Which of the following architectural solutions is an example of creativity in green building?

- a) Using recycled concrete
- b) Constructing skyscrapers in city centers
- c) Utilizing rooftops for food production
- d) Implementing smart home technology

Question 3

Which technology allows for significant energy savings in buildings?

- a) Solar panels
- b) Smart energy management systems
- c) Traditional LED lighting
- d) Central air conditioning

Question 4

What approach is the most innovative in reducing the carbon footprint of buildings?

- a) Building taller structures
- b) Using local, natural materials
- c) Thermal insulation with styrofoam
- d) Constructing new access roads

Question 5

Which of the following ideas promotes sustainable living in cities?

- a) Increasing the number of parking lots
- b) Building gated communities
- c) Creating green spaces
- d) Reducing the number of bike paths

Answers:

1. b) Wood and clay
2. c) Utilizing rooftops for food production
3. b) Smart energy management systems
4. b) Using local, natural materials
5. c) Creating green spaces