QUIZ 4 - CLIMATE DISINFORMATION

Quiz 4 – Climate Disinformation

GreenPower

Instructions

Below are 7 multiple-choice questions related to climate disinformation. Choose one correct answer for each question.

1. What does the definition of climate disinformation include according to Climate Action Against Disinformation?
a) Reporting new scientific discoveries about the climate
b) Spreading false information that undermines the existence or impacts of climate change
c) Promoting renewable energy sources
d) Creating campaigns for environmental protection

2. What is the main tactic of those spreading climate disinformation?
a) Denying the existence of climate change
b) Creating narratives that attack measures to combat the climate crisis
c) Promoting renewable energy
d) Organizing educational campaigns about climate

3. What are the societal effects of climate disinformation?
a) Increases trust in climate science
b) Contributes to social polarization and makes it harder to take climate action
c) Causes increased interest in renewable energy
d) Reduces greenhouse gas emissions

4. Which industry is particularly active in spreading climate disinformation?
a) Renewable energy industry
b) Automotive industry
c) Fossil fuel industry
d) Chemical industry

5. Which of the following strategies is used to deal with misinformation online?
a) Trusting every source of information
b) Ignoring event dates
c) Checking information sources and publication dates
d) Sharing content without verifying its accuracy

6. What are the three types of biases that make the social media ecosystem susceptible to disinformation?
a) Cognitive, social, and algorithmic bias
b) Political, economic, and cultural bias
c) Geographic, demographic, and historical bias
d) Educational, environmental, and religious bias

7. Why does algorithmic bias in social media promote the spread of disinformation?
a) Reduces the reach of climate content
b) Limits access to information from diverse sources
c) Causes users to see more content that elicits strong emotional reactions
d) Promotes content of a neutral nature