

PRE-TEST: Fashion Zero Waste

Instruction:

The examination comprises 15 questions. Please select only one correct answer (A, B, or C).

What is the significance of the "zero waste" concept in the fashion industry?

- A. Adorning oneself exclusively in garments crafted from natural materials
- B. Creating apparel with zero waste generation
- C. Manufacturing clothing solely within small enterprises

How much water is required, on average, to produce a single cotton T-shirt?

- A. 500 liters
- B. 1,200 liters
- C. 2,700 liters

3. What constitutes fast fashion?

- A. Athletic apparel
- B. Affordable, mass-manufactured clothing
- C. Tech-inspired fashion

4. Which of the following brands exemplifies fast fashion?

- A. Patagonia
- B. H&M
- C. Veja

5. What constitutes upcycling?

- A. Textile recycling
- B. Purchasing pre-owned garments
- C. Innovatively repurposing old items into new creations

6. Which material is most suitable for natural dyeing?

- A. Polyester
- B. Cotton
- C. Nylon

Co-funded by
the European Union

PRE-TEST: Fashion Zero Waste

7. What constitutes a natural dye?

- A. Polymer
- B. Turmeric
- C. Gypsum

8. Which of the following materials is environmentally friendly?

- A. Linen
- B. Acrylic
- C. Nylon

9. Which slogan most effectively embodies the concept of zero waste fashion?

- A. Purchase as much as you desire
- B. Fashion evolves daily
- C. Simplicity is key

10. What constitutes greenwashing?

- A. Green textile dyeing
- B. Brands feigning eco-friendliness
- C. Sustainable apparel maintenance

11. What are the benefits of repairing clothing?

- A. Due to its trendiness
- B. Because they are costlier
- C. Because their longevity is increased and waste is minimized

12. Which stitch is employed in hand sewing?

- A. Machine sewing
- B. Blind hem stitch
- C. Closed seam

Co-funded by
the European Union

PRE-TEST: Conscious Fashion

13. Which of these materials is recycled?

- A. Organic wool
- B. Raw cotton
- C. Polyester derived from PET bottles

14. When does Fashion Revolution Week occur?

- A. During April
- B. During December
- C. During August

15. What is the primary objective of responsible fashion?

- A. Embracing trends
- B. Elevated sales
- C. Stewardship of individuals and the environment

Co-funded by
the European Union

