

Task 4

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR DEVELOPING THE ABILITY TO SOLVE COMPLEX PROBLEMS.

As for the development of the ability to solve complex problems, here we can give the following recommendations:

- Don't ask "Can I?" - instead, ask yourself: "Do I want to? How can I solve the problem? "
- Look for the positive aspects in every approaching problem.
- Think of problems as an opportunity to develop in general as well as in person.
- "Dig" deeper - look for the problem.
- Be open to new possibilities, even the most unusual ones.
- Develop creativity and creative thinking.
- Solve issues as they come in, one by one, prioritizing.
- Cultivate a positive attitude.
- Lead a healthy lifestyle.
- If you don't know what to do - just go to sleep.
