

Exercise I

Professional goals - examples for selected industries

To better understand how to describe career goals in a CV, it's worth learning a few simple examples. They will help you create an interesting resume that will catch the recruiter's attention.

- Secretary: I am an employee of the administrative sector with 5 years of work experience. My advantage is a very good knowledge of English and French. I want to use my experience working in an international company that will allow me to further develop my competences.
- IT specialist: I am an experienced front-end developer. For the last 4 years I have been working at XYZ Company. I want to develop my career in a company famous for implementing modern IT solutions.
- Sales advisor: I am a sales advisor with 2 years of experience in the real estate sector. I specialise in active acquisition of new clients. I am looking for employment in a company that will give me the opportunity to develop my career in this area.
- Accountant: I have been working in the accounting department of the international company XYZ for a year. I want to take up employment in a company that will enable me to develop my competences and broaden my specific knowledge.

Describe your own professional goals and your profession for your CV: