

WORKSHEET 9

What are prejudices?

Prejudices are (usually negative) attitudes and emotions directed at specific groups.

They can be a very natural reaction to otherness and strangeness.

Prejudice strongly depends on the dynamics in society.

It is a set of consistent beliefs that are mostly ethnocentric and have little reference to reality.

My belief - prejudice

What do I think?

He is

She is

They are

What emotions

accompany me?

What do I feel?